Personal Statement:

I hope that in the future I will be able to adapt and apply all of the skills and lessons I have learned in Scouting to many of the aspects of my everyday life.

My Most Memorable Scouting Experience is...

Climbing up the Tooth of Time at the Philmont Scout Ranch. It stands out to me because it was one image I will never forget; looking out across the mountains from the top of the tooth is a view like no other and an even greater accomplishment. Looking back, If I could do Philmont over again, the Tooth would be at the top of my list of things to see again.

Personal Statement:

In the immediate future I plan to finish college while finding time to return to Troop 98 over holiday breaks. While I don't know what the distant future holds, I'm hopeful all those who have told me that "the world is my oyster" are correct and I find success and happiness.

My Most Memorable Scouting Experience is...

At the Philmont Scout Ranch I will never forget having a bus full of hikers on their first day drive past our crew as we waited to get picked up on our last day. The hikers looked at the dirt, dust and our overall dishevelment with a mixture of horror, dismay and excitement. We, on the other hand, were really just looking forward to not having to walk any further.

The Scout Oath

On my honor I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong,
mentally awake, and morally straight.

The Scout Law

A Scout is Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean, and Reverent.

A Scout is Trustworthy: A Scout tells the truth. He is honest, and he keeps his promises. People can depend on him.

A Scout is Loyal: A Scout is loyal to those to whom loyalty is due.

A Scout is Helpful: A Scout cares about other people. He helps others without expecting payment or reward. He fulfills his duties to his family by helping at home.

A Scout is Friendly: A Scout is a friend to all. He is a brother to other Scouts. He offers his friendship to people of all races, religions, and nations, and respects them even if their beliefs and customs are different from his own.

A Scout is Courteous: A Scout is polite to people of all ages and positions. He understands that using good manners makes it easier for people to get along.

A Scout is Kind: A Scout treats others as he wants to be treated. He knows there is strength in being gentle. He does not harm or kill any living thing without good reason.

A Scout is Obedient: A Scout follows the rules of his family, school, and troop. He obeys the laws of his community and country. If he thinks these rules and laws are unfair, he seeks to have them changed in an orderly way.

A Scout is Cheerful: A Scout looks for the bright side of life. He cheerfully does tasks that come his way and tries his best to make others happy, too.

A Scout is Thrifty: A Scout works to pay his way and to help others. He saves for the future. He protects and conserves natural resources. He is careful in his use of time and property.

A Scout is Brave: A Scout faces danger even if he is afraid.

A Scout is Clean: A Scout keeps his body and mind fit. He chooses friends who also live by high standards. He avoids profanity and pornography. He helps keep his home and community clean.

A Scout is Reverent: A Scout is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties. He respects the beliefs of others.
